

Gov. Ron DeSantis violated Florida Chapter 104 Section 31 during an April 1, 2022, bill signing. According to 104.31(1)(a), “No officer or employee of the state, or of any county or municipality thereof, except as hereinafter exempted from provisions hereof, shall: (a) Use his or her official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with an election or a nomination of office or coercing or influencing another person’s vote or affecting the result thereof.”

During the April 1, 2022, event, the governor promoted a campaign website, stating, “Yes, you can go to SweetFloridaSong.com. I think people like it. I like it.”

The website, SweetFloridaSong.com, is paid for by Ron DeSantis for Governor, the group responsible for DeSantis’ re-election bid. Additionally, the page contains links to donate to DeSantis’ re-election bid, as seen below.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying "sweetfloridasong.com". Below the browser window is a dark grey donation page. On the left, the text reads: "HELP SUPPORT AMERICA'S GOVERNOR FIGHTING THE GOOD FIGHT FOR THE FREE STATE OF FLORIDA!". To the right is a photograph of Ron DeSantis wearing headphones and speaking into a microphone. Below the photo is a logo that says "RON DESANTIS FLORIDA GOVERNOR". In the center of the page are six white buttons with black text: "CHIP IN $5", "$25", "$50", "$100", "$500", and "OTHER". At the bottom of the page, there is a small box with the text "Paid by Ron DeSantis, Republican, for Governor." and a paragraph of fine print: "Contributions or gifts to Ron DeSantis for Governor are not deductible as charitable contributions for Federal income tax purposes. The maximum contribution is $3,000 per individual or business, per election."
