

DON WILLETT ON CHURCH AND STATE

Highlights:

- Don Willett defended the display of the Ten Commandments on the Texas State Capitol grounds.

Willett Defended The Display Of The Ten Commandments On The Texas State Capitol Grounds

WILLETT DEFENDED THE DISPLAY OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS ON THE TEXAS STATE CAPITOL GROUNDS

Willett Defended The Display Of The Ten Commandments On The Texas State Capitol Grounds. According to Reuters, “Before becoming a judge, Willett was part of Texas' legal team that won a Supreme Court battle to display the Ten Commandments on a monument in the state Capitol despite opponents' concerns that it amounted to government endorsement of a religion.” Reuters, [5/19/16]

Willett's Legal Team Won The Case In Front Of The Supreme Court

Willett's Legal Team Won The Case In Front Of The Supreme Court. According to Reuters, “Before becoming a judge, Willett was part of Texas' legal team that won a Supreme Court battle to display the Ten Commandments on a monument in the state Capitol despite opponents' concerns that it amounted to government endorsement of a religion.” Reuters, [5/19/16]